3. POSITION

The contractor will provide services as a Disability Support Worker supporting participants under the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS).

Services may include but are not limited to:

- Personal care (showering, dressing, toileting)
- Assistance with mobility and transfers
- Meal preparation and domestic assistance
- Community participation and social activities
- Transport to appointments or activities
- Medication assistance where trained
- Documentation of shift notes and participant records

The contractor agrees to perform other reasonable duties as directed.

4. CONTRACTOR STATUS

The worker is engaged as an independent contractor operating under their own ABN.

The contractor is responsible for their own:

- Tax obligations
- Superannuation

- Insurance obligations

5. PAYMENT RATES

Weekday Hourly Rate: $45 per hour

Saturday Hourly Rate: $55 per hour

Sunday Hourly Rate: $55 per hour

Kilometre Travel Rate: $0.50 per kilometre

Payment will be made weekly every Monday following submission of completed shift notes and kilometres travelled in ShiftCare.

All shift notes and kilometres must be submitted by 9:00 AM every Monday.

If shift notes and kilometres are not submitted by 9:00 AM Monday, payment will not be processed until the following week's payment cycle.

If the same requirement is not met the following week, the same payment rule will apply again, and payment will continue to be delayed until all required notes and kilometres are submitted.

Payment will only be made once all required documentation, shift notes, and kilometres travelled are properly completed and submitted in ShiftCare.

6. WORK LOCATION

Work may occur at various locations including:

- Participant homes
- Community locations
- Day programs
- Transport settings

The contractor may be required to travel between participant locations.

7. NDIS WORKER REQUIREMENTS

The contractor must provide and maintain the following documents before commencing work:

- Valid NDIS Worker Screening Check
- Passport or valid photo identification
- Yellow Card
- Blue Card (if supporting children)
- Car insurance certificate
- Vehicle registration certificate
- 100 points of identification
- Infection Control Training Certificate
- Completion of all required NDIS training modules

Failure to maintain these requirements may result in termination of this agreement.

8. CODE OF CONDUCT

The contractor must comply with the NDIS Code of Conduct at all times.

This includes:

- Treating participants with respect and dignity
- Providing supports safely and competently
- Acting with honesty and integrity
- Preventing abuse, neglect and exploitation

9. CONFIDENTIALITY

The contractor must maintain strict confidentiality regarding all participant information including:

- Personal details
- Medical information
- Support plans
- Family information

Confidentiality must be maintained during and after the contract period.

10. WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY

The contractor must comply with all workplace health and safety requirements including:

- Incident reporting
- Manual handling procedures
- Infection control procedures
- Risk management procedures

11. INCIDENT REPORTING

Any incident involving a participant must be reported immediately to management according to NDIS safeguarding requirements.

12. TRAINING

The contractor must complete all required NDIS training modules and maintain all required certifications during the period of engagement.

13. LATE CANCELLATION POLICY

Contractors are required to provide a minimum of 24 hours notice if they are unable to attend a scheduled shift.

If a contractor cancels a shift with less than 24 hours notice, the company reserves the right to withhold the contractor's payment until the following weekly payment cycle.

Repeated late cancellations may result in termination of this agreement.

Contractors must notify the company immediately if they are unable to attend a scheduled shift.

14. CLIENT POACHING / NON-SOLICITATION

The contractor agrees that during the term of this agreement and for a period of 18 months after termination, they will not:

- Directly or indirectly solicit, approach, or accept work from any participant introduced by the company
- Provide private services to any participant of the company outside of the company's arrangement
- Encourage or assist any participant to move their services away from the company

This restriction applies to any participant the contractor has supported, worked with, or been introduced to through the company.

If the contractor breaches this clause, the company may immediately terminate this agreement and pursue recovery of any financial losses suffered as a result of the breach.

This clause does not prevent a participant from exercising their right to choose their provider under the National Disability Insurance Scheme, however the contractor remains responsible for complying with this agreement.

15. PROFESSIONAL BOUNDARIES AND PARTICIPANT PROTECTION

The contractor must maintain strict professional boundaries with all participants and their families.

The contractor must not:

- Accept money, gifts, or personal financial benefits from participants or their families
- Borrow money from participants or become financially involved with participants
- Enter into any personal, romantic, or inappropriate relationship with a participant
- Request or accept personal payments for services outside of the company's arrangement
- Use their position to influence or exploit a participant for personal benefit

Any breach of these requirements may result in immediate termination of this agreement and may be reported to the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission where required.

16. TERMINATION

Either party may terminate this agreement with written notice.

Serious misconduct may result in immediate termination.

17. COMPANY POLICIES

The contractor agrees to follow all company policies including:

- Participant safeguarding
- Privacy and confidentiality
- Professional boundaries
- Medication procedures
- Incident management procedures

18. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement represents the entire agreement between the company and the contractor.
