

Consent for your NDIS information

Consent is a record of the permission you have given.

If you're 18 or older, you have the right to make decisions about your business with the NDIS. That's why we need a record of your consent before we share your information with anyone else or let someone else do things for you.

Please use this form if you want to give your consent:

- for the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) to share your National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) information with a person or organisation you choose
- to allow another person or organisation (third party) to do things for you with the NDIS.

For example, you might want to give consent for a family member who supports you to view your current plan and submit a home modification request for you.

You can give consent if you're the:

- applicant
- participant
- child representative or plan nominee for the participant
- legally appointed decision maker for an applicant.

When we say applicant, we mean someone who is applying to the NDIS.

You don't have to use this form to give your consent. You can let us know over the phone by calling 1800 800 110 or by contacting us in any of the ways listed under How do I return this form to the NDIA.

We'll only share your personal information if you've given your consent to the NDIA to do this. Or, if we're required or authorised to disclose your information by law.

You can take away your consent at any time. You can let us know by mail, email, in person or over the phone that you no longer consent to us sharing information on your behalf.

How do I return this form to the NDIA?

There are a few ways you can return this form to us:
